

São Paulo, June 30th, 2025.

The Postgraduate Program of the Institute of International Relations at USP received six applications from students to compete in the selection process for the joint doctoral program between IRI USP and King's College London. The process was carried out in accordance with the Notice IRI/USP/10/2023. The evaluation committee at IRI was composed of the professors Rossana Rocha Reis, and Maria Antonieta Del Tedesco Lins and the PhD student Shelton Ferreira e Silva Luz.

The result was submitted to the King's College London evaluation committee, which approved the first three placed in the IRI USP selection, with the approval of the 2nd and 3rd candidates subject to formal acceptance of supervision by a faculty member of King's College London presented before the start of the double degree period. The evaluation committee of King's College London emphasizes that the start of activities would be in October or February, preferably October.
